Parasha tidbits from the Rabbi

"וַיְהִי הַמִּקְרִיב בְּיוֹם הָרִאשׁוֹן ... נַחֲשׁוֹן בֶּן-עַמִּינָדָב לְמִטֵּה יְהוּדָה" (Bamidbar 7:12) "And he that presented his offering the first day was Nachshon the son of Aminadav of the tribe of Judah" We take note that all of the other Nesi'im (tribal leaders) were referred to with the title "prince," while Nachshon was mentioned only by name, without any title. This was done intentionally, so as not to create a sense of arrogance or superiority, as he was the first to bring the offerings. In addition, the Gematria of the words "ביום הראשון" is 620, which is also the numerical value of כתר (Keter – "crown"). It is fitting, then, that on this day, the tribe of Judah brought its offering—since, as we know, the כתר מלכות (Keter Malchut – the Crown of Royalty) was given to the tribe of Judah. May we all be worthy of this crown—always striving to follow in the ways of the Torah.

שבת שלום ומבורך

Reminder: Please Redeem Your Pledges Before Summer Travel

As summer approaches and many of our members prepare for time away, we kindly ask that you take a moment to redeem any outstanding pledges. Your generous support helps ensure that our shul continues to operate smoothly throughout the year — even during the quieter summer months. Every contribution makes a difference in sustaining our programs and minyanim.

Parasha thought from Rabbi Arthur Kirsch

In Parshas Naso, we read about the Nazir, who takes a vow to abstain from wine, avoid becoming tamei (ritually impure) through contact with the dead, and refrain from cutting his hair for 30 days. At the end of this period, he must bring several korbanos, including a chatas (sin offering). What was his sin? According to the Gemara, his sin was that he deprived himself of wine—something that is normally permissible. However, the Ramban offers a different perspective. He says the Nazir's mistake was that he ended his Nazirus. While the Ramban cannot argue with the Gemara, his interpretation adds depth. The Ramban is saying that the Nazir became a different kind of person—he reached a much higher madrega (spiritual level). But at the end of the 30 days, he chose to return to his previous state. That, says the Ramban, is his sin. He is compared to a Kohen Gadol (High Priest), yet after his Nazirus, he reverts back to being just “Mr. Nobody.” This is the Ramban's message: When you elevate yourself and reach a new madrega—stay there! Don't fall back. Hold on to the growth you've achieved.

Have a great Shabbos.

Shul Notes

- Thank you to the volunteers who organized the Shabbat kiddush.
- Shabbat Group for Children: We are happy to announce that we are now offering a morning Shabbat group for our children. The group will start at 9:30 AM and will conclude after davening. It will be fully supervised, and we hope you will bring your children for a fun and learning experience. Please bring the children to the Social Hall.
- New Payment Option Available! We are excited to inform you that our shul now accepts payments via Zelle! This convenient option allows you to make contributions, pay dues, and support our shul with ease. To make a payment, simply use the following email address: youngisraelofsib@bellsouth.net.
- To Sponsor a Kiddush: Anyone wishing to sponsor a Kiddush should notify the office (the earlier, the better). Do you have a family simcha or any special occasion you'd like to include in the bulletin? Please notify the office by Thursday.
- For any questions regarding kashrut, the eruv and other halachic issues contact Rabbi Haber.
